AFP partners the Mexico Women's Forum

AFP is participating in the international Women's Forum held in Mexico City, April 27 to April 28, 2016.

25 Apr 2016

25 APR 2016

Some 400 to 500 women and men leaders to attend from Mexico, the United States, Latin America and Europe. They will come together for discussion of Mexico's ambitious reform process and what it will change in the country and beyond its borders. One overarching focus for the meeting will be how to ensure that women are included with men in the opportunities being created by the Pacto por Mexico reforms, whether energy, finance, telecoms, etc.?

About Women's Forum for the Economy & Society

Founded in 2005, the Women's Forum for the Economy and Society is the world's leading forum looking at major social and economic issues from women's perspectives. It promotes the empowerment of women world-wide, as well as the networks of collaboration that enable women's voices to be heard with clarity and force. Women's Forum events, including a major annual Global Meeting, highlight strong and important women and men in politics, business, civil society and academe. Based in Paris, the Women's Forum is a subsidiary of Publicis Groupe.
